PRE AUTHORIZED REMITTANCE
FOR
MARTIN LUTHER CHURCH, TORONTO

What is pre authorized remittance?

Pre authorized remittance is a direct debit program that allows people to support the church through an automatic monthly or quarterly withdrawal from their bank account. This debit would be similar to other authorized withdrawals from your account, i.e. utilities, condo fees, car payments, property taxes.

At the beginning of the year or when joining the program, the congregation member would determine the amount of the monthly or quarterly remittance to the Martin Luther Church, Toronto. At any point during the year with 15 days notice, the congregation member may decide to change the amount of the donation or cancel the remittance. The monthly remittance will be withdrawn from you account on the 10th of each month.

Advantages of pre authorized remittance:

- Regular support of the church in the amount that you chose
- Continual support of the church when you are away

If you are interested in this program, please complete the form on the reverse and return it with a void cheque.
